

February 4, 2021

<https://www.connect.media/camber-opens-affordable-senior-project-in-harlem/>

Camber Opens Affordable Senior Project in Harlem

February 4, 2021

Camber Property Group announced the official opening of Victory Plaza, a 136-unit affordable housing development in Central Harlem featuring 81 units set aside for low-income seniors and 55 homes for formerly homeless seniors.

Located at 11 W. 118th St., the nine-story building was developed by Camber in partnership with Harlem Congregations for Community Improvement (HCCI), the New York City Department of Housing Preservation & Development (HPD) and the New York City Housing Development Corporation (HDC).

“Victory Plaza will allow many low-income and formerly homeless seniors to remain in the city they love as we begin to rebuild and recover from the COVID-19 crisis,” said Rick Gropper, principal and co-founder of Camber Property Group.

The $65-million project was financed by HDC, HPD and Wells Fargo, and was designed by Aufgang Architects. The building will feature on-site wraparound social services, provided by HCCI.