

Upscale residential building coming to Ridgewood

By Liam La Guerre

Monday, February 24th, 2014

A new upscale residential building with various amenities, including a rooftop dog run, is coming to Ridgewood soon.

Aufgang Architects is designing the estimated $18 million, 90,000 square foot building at 176 Woodward Ave. The structure will have 88 housing units and commercial retail space on the ground floor.

Once completed, the building will offer residents onsite parking, a laundry room in each apartment, multipurpose rooms, an exercise room, a rooftop terrace with a dog run, a pet washing room and “luxuriously appointed lobbies and common areas.”

Photo courtesy Aufgang Architects

This upscale residential building is planned to be completed in Ridgewood by the end of the year.

A spokesperson for Aufgang Architects said the project should be completed by the end of this year.